

ENGLISH LITERARY WEEK - LITERATI 2015

- Duration : 27th July 2015 - 31st July 2015
Venue : Language Lab
Conducted By : Department of English
Organized By : Teachers of the Department of English
Attended By : Students of Classes VI-XII

The department of English, ITL Public school organized English Literary week ‘Literati’ from 27th July, 2015 to 31st July, 2015. Students from classes VI-XII enthusiastically participated in the events held during the week. Ms. Anuradha Chhabra, Head Mistress, ITL Public School along with Ms. Meena Ramnesh, Deputy Head Mistress, ITL Public School graced the event by inaugurating it with the lighting up of the candles, cake cutting ceremony and also encouraged the students with her enlightening words. On the first day, the students of Class XI-XII portrayed their exquisite clicks in Frame worx and an elaborate panel discussion was held on the book ‘To Kill a Mocking bird’. On the second day, Class X students participated in Turn coats to express their logical and analytical reasoning. On the third day, the students of class VII expressed their opinions and depicted their oratory skills on different topics through Elocutio-unleashed which was followed by the world famous speeches delivered by the students of class IX. On the fourth day of Literati, students of Class VIII participated in the Zesty Zeal to present their exceptional talents in character enactment done on famous plays such as ‘The Merchant of Venice’ and ‘Uncle Podger hangs a Picture’. On the final day of Literati, the event culminated with Fantasmia wherein a puppet story-telling competition was held for students of class VI. The little puppets presented their creative and imaginative narrative skills. The event culminated with the Vision 360’ and the winners were given certificates as a token of appreciation by the Head Mistress, Ms. Anuradha Chhabra. The event offered a great platform to the students to introspect and render their exquisite talents.

