

ITL Public School celebrated ATL Tinkerfest on Monday, 29 July 2019. TinkerFest is a platform to reach out to community children and find budding Studentmaker and Studentpreneurs.

The event was graced by the illustrious and distinguished chief guest Dr Pankaj Khurana, life scientist, DRDO. The gala event begin with activity – ‘StudentPreneur’ wherein participants pitched their fully functional business plan which was followed by another spell bounding model demonstration activity- ‘Student Maker’. Participants were judged on basis of creativity, imagination, reliability, economic viability, durability and its future scope. Projects like atmospheric water Generator, drone, Water conservation, RHPSDY website were appreciated by judges for their innovative design thinking. The fest culminated with prize distribution ceremony, to reward the winners of both the activities.

