intel

ITL Public School, Sector-9, Dwarka hosts pilot training on Artificial Intelligence with Intel. A series of training sessions were conducted in 4 phases for students from classes VIII to XI to create deep understanding of AI. The activities revolved around AI interacting techniques, AI ethics, AI project cycle, comprehensible online games, connecting future with AI and exploration of data on sustainable development goals. In subsequent sessions, modules of python on problem scoping, data acquisition, data exploration, data modelling, data evaluation and its deployment were discussed upon.